Numb. 3932

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday July 15. to Monday July 19. 1703.

Lublin, July 4. N. S.

THE General Diet is ſtill aſſembled, and has reſolved to augment the Forces of the Crown to 36000 Men, that they may be able to make head againſt the Swedes, and to raiſe ſeveral Subſidies to carry on the War, in caſe Matters come to an open Rupture between that Crown and the Republick. It has been propoſed, That ſince the Princes of the Houſe of Sapieha have publickly appeared for the Swediſh Intereſt, they ſhould be deprived of their Honours, and the Great Places they enjoy in the Government; however their Friends have prevailed to have this Matter deferr'd till the Meeting of the Nobility on Horſeback, called the Poſpolite Razzenie; to haſten which the King has iſſued a ſecond Summons to them to repair to Golumb, where thoſe of the Palatinates of Sindomir and Cracow are already encamped. The Muſcovite Ambaſſador uſes great Endeavours to perſwade the Poliſh Grandees to the War; but we are not without hopes that Matters may be brought to a friendly Accommodation. Letters from Lemberg ſay, the Coſſacks have committed Diſorders afreſh in the Ukrain.

Warſaw, July 5. The Forces of the Crown and of the Dutchy of Lithuania being joined with the Saxon Troops, marched the 3d Inſtant from Pultowsky to Czicchonow, where they are now encamped. The Miniſters of England and Holland came hither yeſterday from Lublin, in their way to the King of Sweden's Camp before Thoorn. The Imperial Envoy has already ſent his Secretary to know his laſt Reſolutions in relation to the continuing of the War, or bringing Matters to an Accommodation.

Vienna, July 11. An Officer arrived here this morning from Prince Lewis of Baden, with Letters of the 6th Inſtant from his Quarters at Hauſſheim, within a Mile of the Enemy's Camp, which is ſo well intrenched, and ſo advantagiouſly ſituated, with their Right Wing covered by Dellingen, their Left by Lawingen, their Rear by the Danube, and their Front by an Intrenchment and a Rivulet, that it is thought impoſſible to force it; ſo that all that can be done at preſent is to ſtreigthen them, and to intercept their Convoys of Proviſions: In the mean time Prince Lewis expected to be ſhortly joined, as well by the Margrave of Bareith, who was arrived at Nordlingen with the Body of Imperial Forces under his Command, as by the Troops of the King of Pruſſia and the Circle of Weſtphalia, which are coming up from the Lower Rhine. Lieutenant-General de la Tour, Governor of Conſtance, is to have under his Command 2 or 3000 Horſe, wherewith he is to make Excurſions towards Ulm, to intercept the Enemy's Convoys, and to hinder them from receiving any Advice or Subſiſtence from that ſide. General Heiſter is to go from hence this evening towards Tirol, to take upon him the Command of the Imperial Forces which are gathering together in thoſe Parts, to the number of 10000 Men. Letters from Landeg of the firſt Inſtant give an Account, that the Huntſmen and Country People in a Valley on the Inn, which leads towards that of Engadina, had defeated a Detachment of the Bavarian Forces near a Place called Bruez, having (as is ſaid) killed 2000 of them, and taken the Commanding Officer with 50 private Soldiers Priſoners, beſides 60 Horſes, and a great quantity of Bagage. The Count de Serini, who has been confined near 20 years at Rothenberg, has, upon the Elector of Bavaria's Approach towards that Place, been carried from thence to the Caſtle of Gratz. The Baron of Schonborn is come hither with the Character of Envoy from his Unkle the Elector of Mentz.

Ratisbonne, July 16. We have not yet the Particulars of the taking of the Caſtle of Ehrenberg in Tirol by the Bavarians, though all Advices from thence agree as to its being ſurrendered to them; and ſome Letters add, that they found there a good quantity of all ſorts of Proviſions, which were deſigned for the Imperial Army in Italy. The Elector was on the 11th Inſtant with the beſt part of his Army ſtill near Inſpruck, from whence he had ſent a ſtrong Detachment to diſperſe the Regular Troops and Militia which are got together at Schneeberg, and to endeavour to open a Paſſage to Brixen: Whether the French will endeavour to join him with a Detachment from their Army in Italy is yet unknown to us, being ſtill without Letters from Italy, becauſe of the ſtop put to the Poſt from thence by the Bavarians being in Tirol. The Imperial and the French Armies on the Danube continue in the ſame Camps. Letters from thence of the 13th ſay, that Prince Lewis was raiſing ſeveral Batteries to Cannonade the Enemy in their Camp. On the 11th the Bavarian Town of Wembding near Donawerth was ſurrendred to the Imperial General Palfy. On the 12th the Margrave of Bareith, with the Forces under his Command, broke up from Nordlingen, and marched to Diſhlingen, in order to join Prince Lewis.

Francfort, July 18. We hear the French Army commanded by the Duke of Burgundy paſſed over the Rhine the 16th Inſtant at Kehl, but upon what Deſign is not yet known; The Rhine being much ſwelled by the late great Rains, has overflowed its Banks, which put them to ſome Inconveniency in their March, and has made Forege very ſcarce. General Thungen, upon notice of their Motions, has drawn to him at Stolhoffen the Imperial Troops which were poſted near Philipsbourg. He is ſending a Detachment of 5000 Men to the Kintzinger-Dale, to prevent any Deſigns the Enemy may have of endeavouring to open a Communication that way with the French Army commanded by the Marſhal de Villars. Our Advices from Swabia ſay, that the Margrave of Bareith arrived in Prince Lewis of Baden's Camp at Hausſheim the 18th Inſtant; and that his Highneſs had thereupon ſent a Detachment on the other ſide of the Danube, who had poſted themſelves in the Valley of Leyckeim, the more to ſtreigthen the French Army. The King of Pruſſia's Forces and thoſe of the Circle of Weſtphalia continue their March with all Diligence towards the Upper Rhine.

Cologne, July 20. Letters from the Moſelle ſay all is very quiet in thoſe Parts; and the French have laid aſide the Preparations which they were making, upon the Jealouſie they had conceived, that the Forces of Pruſſia and Weſtphalia, which are marching to the Upper Rhine, were deſigned to attack the Caſtle of Traerbach, or for ſome other

Enter-